A SILVER SERVICE

Fund Being Raised Out of the Employes At the Asylum.

To Present Supr. Paine With a Token of Their Regard Upon His Retiring.

Complaints come to this office that something almost in the nature of an assessment is being made on the retiring employes to purchase for the retiring fund of that institution a $250 silver service, as a testimonial of their regard.
Steward Handaker is reported to have the matter in hand of raising as large a fund as possible by contributions from the employes to purchase a magnificent silver service for a gift to D. A. Paine on his retirement as superintendent. It is to be a token of high regard and a tangible expression of the esteem in which he is held by the employes. The fund is being made up almost on the pro rata plan, in proportion to their salary, the donations ranging from $1 to $7.50 each.
The matter is attracting some attention, and a number of the employes are said to be refusing to contribute. It is recalled that upon Dr. Rowland's retirement the employes named that gentlemen and got a reprimand for it.
Dr. Harry Lane positively forbade any present being made upon his retirement.
It is to be hoped that all that is related about the present transaction at the asylum is not true, and that the present head is in no way encouraging such a lavish expenditure on the part of the men and women who are working for small compensation on the state pay-rolls.

Eugene Pioneer Dead.

Joseph G. Gray, the well-known pioneer, died in Albany on Sunday night, at the home of his son-in-law, Frank J.
Miller. Mr. Gray, accompanied by his wife, went to Albany on a visit; the first of last week. Shortly after arriving there, Mr. Gray was stricken with phre-nitis.

county, Ohio, November 24, 1824. He crossed the plains in 1849. Returning to Indiana in 1851, he married Mary E.
Andrew, on November 3, 1852. With her he crossed the plains to Oregon and settled in the Mohawk valley, in Lane county, in October, 1853. In 1855 he located in Eugene. He was appointed United States surveyor, and in company with Wm. H. Odell, made a survey in Eastern Oregon. He was elected county treasurer in 1874, re-elected in 1876, and again in 1894. He was the first president of the city council and was a member of the board for several years. He has six children: Walter Gray, of Huntington, Or.; Mrs. B. F.
Alley, of Baker City; Dr. J. C. Gray, of Eugene; Mrs. Wm. J. Darroch, of Eugene; Mrs. F. J. Miller, of Albany; Elmer Gray, of Baker City, and Hugh

COMING CITY ELECTION.

Citizen's Ticket Completed and Put in the Field.

Republican Primaries in Three Wards Poll a Light Vote—Candidate Withdraws.

At a joint meeting of citizens and union committees held yesterday the following ticket was agreed upon for concomittees in the respective wards: First ward—T. BURROWS.
Second ward—A. B. BUREN.
Third ward—L. E. ALLEN.
Fourth ward—P. J. LARSEN.
Petitions for each of these gentlemen have been circulated and liberally signed, and they are considered acceptable to the best interests of the city. It is understood that the gentlemen named will accept the citizen's nomination.

There will be a ratification meeting at the city Recorder's court room Wednesday evening at 8 p. m., when the above named candidates will be asked to publicly accept these nominations. City finances will probably be discussed and the wishes of the people learned as far as possible.

The Salem Republican city primaries advertised to come off Monday afternoon were practically abandoned. The Republicans refused to name candidates.
In the first ward nothing was done. In the second ward a few votes were cast in favor of Dr. J. N. Smith for councilman.
In the third ward a like action was taken, with Gen. W. H. Odell as the candidate. In the fourth ward a few votes were cast, and those for P. J. Larsen, the Citizens' candidate.

Republican City Chairman Geo. P.
Rodgers was called upon by a JOURNAL representative for the official vote in the different wards, but the same could not be procured, as the committee deemed it wisest not to give the figures to the press.

DR. J. N. SMITH DECLINES.

Mr. Smith was seen by a JOURNAL reporter and stated that he was not aware of any primary being held in his ward, and authorized the statement that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances. He added: "There are two offices that I will never accept if I can avoid it—councilman and school director."

Mr. Larsen, of the Fourth ward, yesterday notified the men in charge of the primaries that he was the candidate of the Citizens' movement, as he did not wish to be misunderstood. Nevertheless, what votes were cast were for him.
Gen. Odell was seen, and expressed surprise at his nomination, but would not say whether he would accept and make the race.

The Mask Carnival.

Every body's attention is now directed to the grand prize "Mask Carnival," which is to be given by the Modern Woodmen of this city at the opera house Thursday evening "Thanksgiving night." The floor is now being put in excellent shape and the makers are making active preparations. Many new novelties will be introduced to amuse the spectators who will be there to greet the maskers.

Correction.

The sketch of John C. Booth's life omitted to state that in 1871 he was married to Mrs. Belle Hedrick. After a separation, he married Mrs. Veronica Wiesner who died last winter.

THREE GOOD MEN

Are Laid in the Grave in One Day.

T. C. Booth, J. O. Card and A. L. Buckingham Buried With Appropriate Ceremonies.

Three good men were conveyed to their last resting places today and laid away with appropriate ceremonies, and three fresh mounds lie covered with flowers tonight in the cemetery south of town.

Two of these citizens had nearly reached the old age of three score years and ten years; the other was in the prime of his manhood. All three had led busy and useful lives, and though neither had piled up riches, each had performed his part with faithful integrity, and had won the esteem of his associates and the community in which he lived.

The floral offerings were surprisingly plentiful and beautiful, for this time of year, roses and chrysanthemums predominating.

The funeral of John C. Booth took place at 1:30 p. m. services being held at the First Congregational church, of which deceased was a faithful member.
There was a large turn-out, especially of the older members of the community.
The pall-bearers were: John Hughes,
A. T. Gilbert, J. G. Wright, T. Holver-son, J. M. Payne and G. W. Johnson.
Burial took place in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

The funeral services of J. O. Card were conducted by Rev. John Parsons of the First M. E. Church of which Mr.
Card was a member, at the residence on Liberty street at 2 p. m. The Aris-ans, of which order deceased was a member, attended in a body and there were present a large number of friends and acquaintances.

The pall-bearers were Scott Bozorth, C. H. Lane, Jas. Godfrey, J. W. Harriett, J. M. Lawrence and H. S. Belle.
Burial took place in city view cemetery.

The A. L. Buckingham funeral was held at the Commercial street residence at 10:30 a. m. Rev. H. L. Ketchum of the First Presbyterian church officiating.

The attendance was made up of the older settlers and the more immediate friends of the family. Mr. and Mrs. N.
H. Loney, of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs.
W. J. Clark, of Gervais, were among those coming from a distance.

The pall-bearers were John Hughes,
J. G. Wright, C. W. Macnamar, H. S.
Jory, A. Wain, and John Chase.
The burial took place in the Odd Fellows cemetery.
